

Announcementon the amendment of the General Corporate Banking Business*Regulations

CIB Bank Zrt. (1027 Budapest, Medve u. 4-14.; company reg. no.: 01-10-041004) (hereinafter: Bank) hereby informs its Clients that, as from 25 May 2018, the following sections of the Bank's General Corporate Banking Business Regulations are amended as follows.

Section 2 entitled "Definitions" will be supplemented with the following "General Data Protection Regulation" definition below.

Data Protection Regulation REGULATION (EU) 2016/679 of the EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC,

5.2.1. The Bank shall manage the Client's data in accordance with the relevant statutes, including in particular the provisions of the Civil Code and the Credit Institutions Act. The Bank shall provide information on the method and details of data management to the Client and other data subjects in a public Data Protection and Data Security Policy. If the Client provides the Bank with the data of a natural person (including, but not limited to a contact person), the Client shall ensure that there is an appropriate legal basis for the transfer of the data and it must be able to provide proof thereof to the Bank.

5.2.4. (d) Identification Document

In the interest of the prevention of money laundering, in the course of the customer identification process conducted in accordance with the Anti-Money Laundering Act, the Bank shall, in the event of an application for a loan product, prepare copies of the personal identification document with a photograph of the Client's representative.
