Starting time of the Bank Working Day
On Bank Working Days, from 4.45 hours
The Bank performs the tasks that it is obliged to carry out in respect of a change in the person entitled to dispose over the Client's bank account and/or to sign on behalf of the Client exclusively on Bank Working Days, provided that the Client reports the change during the opening hours of the branch, but at the latest by 18.00 hours, otherwise the Bank shall perform the tasks that it is obliged to carry out on the next Bank Working Day.
The expected time of performance is the day on which the beneficiary's bank may be expected to credit the amount of the order to the beneficiary. This time shall, in the case of an FCY transfer – subject to currency holidays – be the expected time of crediting on the nostro account of the beneficiary's bank.
At weekends, in the case of cash-desk payments involving conversion, the Bank converts at the exchange rate quoted on the previous Bank Working Day (the most recent valid rate).
Orders involving conversion are executed by the Bank at the FX exchange rate in the case of T and T+1 execution day and at the FX commercial rate in the case of T+2 execution day.
In the case of a cash deposit made using an automated teller machine, the crediting of the cash sums on the beneficiary's payment account is performed by the payment service provider on the working day of checking the amount of the deposit, within three days following the deposit, with a value date that is the same as the working day of crediting.
In the case of cash deposits made via the night safe, the Bank – based on a separate agreement concluded with the Client – will take receipt of the value of any bank notes that have been deposited in the night safe by the Client by 8 a.m. on the Banking Day classified as the day of receipt, on each Banking Day at 8 a.m. (day of receipt), and shall, in accordance with the provisions of the separate agreement, credit this sum on the Client's Bank Account. The Bank shall be entitled to unilaterally amend the designated time of 8 a.m. of the day of receipt, subject to prior written notice sent to the Client.
The acceptance and execution deadlines specified in this document apply in respect of the Client's – no longer sold – orders belonging under the effect of the List of Conditions for Non-resident Businesses.
You will find details of branch opening hours on the www.cib.hu website.
