⁶ The fee can be charged if the Bank has to correspond with third parties regarding client's matter.

⁷ In addition to commissions applicable to foreign currency transactions involving the Customer's Bank Account, any out-of-pocket expenses (e.g. postal charges, DHL courier charges, etc.) related to the executed transactions, as well as any justified fees and commissions incurred due to the involvement of an intermediary bank or banks may, at the Parties' option, be charged to the Customer or to the Originator of the foreign currency transaction. (These include, in the case of outgoing foreign-currency payments to destination countries that use the IBAN international bank account number format, the fee charged by the foreign bank if the beneficiary's IBAN-format account number was indicated erroneously on, or omitted from, the payment order.) In case of transfers outside the EEA, if the Customer undertakes to bear all the fees and charges associated with the transfer, the Customer must ensure that sufficient funds are available on the designated account to cover such costs. The precise amount of fees and charges differ from bank to bank.

Intermediary bank charges differ by bank.

The Bank excludes its liability for any lengthening of this deadline due to the paying bank's procedure related to execution of the collection order. The deadlines applicable to execution should in every case be interpreted as being over and above the deadlines specified in this List of Conditions.
